

Arthur Grant Bremner, Nova Scotia

brebner.com

Bremner, Col. Arthur Grant C.M.G. 1916; R.E.;

Son of late Col. J.J. Bremner of Halifax, Nova Scotia. Born 1867, served with the Dongola Expedition 1896 and in the Great War 1914-1919. Lt. Col. R.E. 1916, Chief Engineer (Temp. Brig. Gen.) 1917-1919, Bt. Col. 1918, Ret. 1920; United Service Club; Clementsville, Annapolis Co., Nova Scotia, Canada.

[Kelly's Handbook to the Titled, Landed and Official Classes (1934)]

...born 13 JUN 1867, son of Lt. Col. J.J. Bremner, Halifax, Nova Scotia (unmarried)
Education: RMC, served Dongola 1896 (two medals); European War 1914-1918
(despatches, C.M.G., Bt. Col.)

Recreations: polo, big game shooting

Club: United Service

[Who's Who 1920]

Retired with Hon. rank of Brigadier-General (1920)

Address: Clement Swale, Nova Scotia, CAN

[Who's Who 1930]

Additional Notes:

Arthur Grant Bremner was one of five children to James John Lachlan Bremner and Caroline M. Desbarres.

View a detailed genealogy of this family...