

Sir Alexander Brebner (1883-1979)

brebner.com

Brebner, Sir Alexander, Kt., cr. 1938; C.I.E. 1920; B.SC (Edinburgh); Indian Service of Engineers, retired; Ministry of Works (Licensing Officer, Scotland) since 1942; b 19 AUG 1883; s. of R.C. Brebner, Edinburgh; m 1911, Margaret Patricia, d. of W. Cunningham, Edinburgh; one son, two daughters. Education: George Watson's College, Edinburgh; Edinburgh University. Assistant Engineer, P.W.D., 1906; Executive Engineer, 1912; Under-Secretary, Bihar and Orissa, 1919; Under-Secretary to Government of India, 1919-23; Superintending Engineer, 1923; Consulting Engineer to Government of India, 1927 and 1929; Chief Engineer, Government of India, 1931; retired, 1938; lately employed in Chief Divisional Food Office for Scotland, Ministry of Food.

Publication: Notes on Reinforced Brick-work.

Recreation: Golf

Address: 4 Ainslie Place, Edinburgh

Telephone: 30569

Clubs: University (Edinburgh); Royal and Ancient (St. Andrew's)

[Who's Who 1950 edition]

Additional notes:

Alexander was one of at least seven children to Robert Charles Brebner (b 1854, Aberdeen) and Mary Elizabeth Wallace. Robert Charles Brebner was one of three children to contractor John Brebner and his wife Margaret Dickson. John was in turn the son of Charles Bremner and Isabella Simpson of the Tarland Brebner/Bremner group.

View genealogy of this family...