

Bankruptcy of William Cardno, Fraserburgh

brebner.com

Aberdeen Journal, Issue 2522, Tuesday May 10th 1796.

NOTICE TO THE CREDITORS OF WILLIAM CARDNO

Squarewright in Fraserburgh. The said William Cardno having disposed his whole effects, real and personal, in trust for behoof of his just and lawful creditors, in favour of Messrs. James Gray and John Dalrymple junr. Merchants in Fraserburgh and James Milne, Merchant in Rosehearty- INTIMATION is hereby made of the same to all persons who are creditors of the said William Cardno; and the trustees request them to meet, by themselves or doers properly authorised, within the house of Daniel Green, Vintner in Fraserburgh, upon Saturday the fourteenth day of May current, between the hours of eleven and twelve o'clock forenoon. It is then proposed to lay before the meeting a state of the debtor's affairs, in so much as they have hitherto come to the knowledge of the trustees, and also the trust deed itself, in order that the creditors may give proper directions to the trustees as to the management of the said William Cardno's affairs. And, in order that these measures may be carried into complete execution, it will be necessary that the creditors or their doers then individually subscribe to the deed of accession to the trust, at same time bringing along with them their claims and vouchers with oaths of verity thereon.

Aberdeen Journal, Issue 2545; Tuesday, October 11th 1796.

Notice to the DEBTORS and CREDITORS of WILLIAM CARDNO, Square Wright in Fraserburgh. All those who granted bills at the roup of the said William Cardno's subjects upon the 19th of May last are requested to pay the contents thereof to William Kelman, Baillie of Fraserburgh, immediately, (the bills being long past due) otherwise diligence will be raised thereon and put into Execution. Also those who are in any other manner or way indebted to the said William Cardno, are requested to pay what they owe him, into the hands of the said William Kelman, directly, as prosecutions will be commenced against those failing to comply.

And likewise those of his creditors who have hitherto failed to lodge with then trustees their claims, properly vouched, will do so with the said William Kelman, directly, as prosecutions will be commenced against those who fail to comply.

And likewise those of his creditors who have hitherto failed to lodge with the trustees their claims, properly vouched, will do so with the said William Kelman, as a dividend of the subjects is intended to be made as soon as circumstances will permit,

WILLIAM KELMAN