Aberdeen Journal , Saturday 30th July 1927

"MR. J. BREBNER, LATE OF MILL OF AUCHNAGATT."

"One of the best known and highly respected business men in Buchan passed away on Wednesday afternoon in the person of Mr. James BREBNER, Ashvale, Fyvie, and late of Mill of Auchnagatt, aged 67 years. Mr. BREBNER, who had been in failing health for some years, had a shock on the preceding Thursday, which was followed by pneumonia."

"Of a keen and industrious disposition, Mr. BREBNER had a praiseworthy record for public work in Aberdeenshire, and it was only owing to failing health that he retired from his many duties last Wednesday. Besides carrying on a prosperous and extensive milling business at Mill of Auchnagatt for the long period of 46 years, he found time to devote many hours for the benefit of the community. He served for many years on the New Deer Parish Council, and for six years was a member of the School Management Committee, acting for several years as parents' representative. He also served on the School Board, latterly as chairman. For the long period of 30 years he was secretary and treasurer of Auchnagatt Lighting Committee, while he was also secretary and treasurer of Auchnagatt Public Hall for 21 years. He was president of Auchnagatt Dramatic Club."

"The late Mr. BREBNER was a very keen and devoted church worker, and was for many years a Sunday School teacher and choir member in Savoch Parish Church, and he also arranged for monthly services in Auchnagatt Public Hall, where he was organist. He was organist for 23 years in Maud Parish Church, and was also choirmaster. Mr. BREBNER gave his services ungrudgingly in every deserving cause, and in his younger days was a well known teacher of music, and held large singing classes. He was conductor of Auchnagatt Musical Association. His death leaves a blank in the business and social life in Buchan which will be difficult to fill."

"Mr. BREBNER leaves a widow, three sons and two daughters, and the sincere sympathy of all in the community is freely extended to them in their bereavement."

"A gentle, gracious woman, she endeared herself to a wide circle of friends. Children were instinctively attracted to her."
