

Generation One

1. James Brebner #1152, b. 1720-25 in Black Isle, ROC, SCT.

1771: Lived at Auchmaliddie, died shortly after 1780-85.

Aberdeen Journal, Wednesday 21st March 1906

"... The progenitor of this (Brebner) family was James Brebner, a native of the Black Isle, who, as a young man, took part in the '45 Rebellion. On the collapse of the movement, and dreading capture by the authorities, he forsook his Highland home and settled in New Deer, taking care to conceal his identity. Subsequently coming under the general pardon, he settled in Auchmaliddie Farm, and married Margaret Johnston, of the Loanhead branch of the "clan." On 24th April, 1778 they had a son, baptised William, besides whom they had two other children. The parents dying when the children were in infancy, William Johnston, merchant, Savoch, adopted them, and William Brebner succeeded Mr. Johnston in both shop and farm. He married Margaret Garden, Ardlethen, Ellon, and they had a family of twelve, of whom was James Brebner....."

" A son of the latter is James Brebner, the present tenant of Green of Savoch, whose deceased wife Elsie Fiddes Walker, was a daughter of John Walker, Blackpots, Old Deer and his wife, Margaret Low."

Aberdeen Evening Express, Saturday, 7th May 1892

"The Late Mr. A. Brebner, Methlick."

"By agriculturalists generally throughout the north as well as by many friends in the city and county of Aberdeen, the intimation of the death of Mr. Alexander Brebner, Balquindachy, will be received with sincere regret. Mr. Brebner, who came from a worthy race of agriculturalists, succeeded his father on the farm of Balquindachy -- the largest on the Aberdeen estates -- and here his thorough knowledge of modern agriculture made his pursuit of it successful and profitable in no small measure. He was a recognized authority on all matters of husbandry, and on such his advice was much sought after and listened to. Mr. Brebner, who had a university training, was a member of the Parochial Board and School Board, and in these capacities also his assistance was gladly welcomed. It should be mentioned also that a visit to deceased's farm could not fail to convince one that Mr. Brebner had ever been ready to invest his capital in the interest alike of servant, farmer, and landlord. By Lord and Lady Aberdeen Mr. Brebner was held in high esteem, and during his illness he was visited more than once by his Lordship. From a wide surrounding district also many inquirers called when it became known that the worthy farmer was seriously ill. Mr. Brebner, who was in his 54th year, died of pneumonia which supervened upon a serious attack of bronchitis. His wife predeceased him fourteen years ago, but he is survived by two daughters and three sons. One of the latter -- Alexander -- a distinguished graduate of Aberdeen University, will succeed his father; the second, Robert, is a sheep farmer in New Zealand; while the third, James, is presently attending Aberdeen Grammar School. As indicated, Mr. Brebner had many friends in this city as well as in the county, his cheerful sociality endearing him to all he met. He was a member of the Church of Scotland. In the district of Methlick deceased, in an unostentatious way, was generous and charitable to all the poor, who will lose by his death a kind-hearted friend."

Aberdeen Evening Express, Friday, 13th May 1892

"The Late Mr. Brebner, Balquindochy. -- The funeral of the late Alexander Brebner, farmer, Balquindochy, took place on Wednesday to the churchyard of Methlick, where a large and representative company assembled to pay their last token of respect to the memory of the deceased. Funeral service were conducted on the lawn in front of the house by the Rev. Mr. Ritchie, Methlick Parish Church, and the Rev. Mr. Michie, Free Church. The funeral procession was then formed, which consisted of about forty machines. Among those present were Alexander and James (sons of the deceased); Mr. Brebner, Green of Savock; Mr. Brebner, Aucheocho; Mr. Brebner, Newton of Bruxie; Mr. Sim, Aberdeen (cousins); Mr. Salmond, Kinbroom (brother-in-law); Lord Aberdeen, the Rev. Andrew Ritchie, the Rev. Henry Michie, Dr. Morrison, Mr. Grant, Methlick; Mr. Garden, North Ythsie; Mr. Hay, Little Ythsie; Mr. Muirhead, Haddo House; Mr. James Esslemont, Aberdeen; Mr. Keith, schoolmaster; Mr. John Carle, jun., Aberdeen; Mr. Leask, Skilmafilly; Mr. Beaton, Middlethird; Dr. Mitchell, New Deer; Mr. Lawrence, New Deer; Mr. Alexander Carle, New Deer; Mr. Stephen, Mains of Inkhorn; Mr. Mackie, Mains of Elrick; Mr. Bannerman, Cairnorrie; Mr. Marshall, Skelmonae; Mr. Fowlie, Auchmaliddie; Mr. Maitland, Little Methlick; Mr. Marr, Uppermill, &c. Before the remains were lowered into the grave, a short prayer was offered up by the Rev. Mr. Ritchie."

Aberdeen Journal, Thursday 19th July 1928

"FARMER AT AUCHNAGATT FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY"

" Mr. James BREBNER, well known as an agriculturalist of high standing, particularly in Buchan, has died in Aberdeen. He was eighty years of age, and succeeded his father fifty years ago in the tenancy of Green of Savoch, Auchnagatt, from which he retired four years ago."

" Mr. BREBNER was extremely well known, not only for his keen interest in agricultural, but also in the affairs of the district. He was an ardent educationist, and served on the School Board of Savoch for many years. He was an elder in the U.F. Church of Savoch, to which he gave much service, in appreciation of which he received a handsome token of gratitude on his retirement. In politics he was a staunch advanced Liberal. Since his retirement he resided a good deal with his family, and at Banchory, Fingask, and Gamrie he became well known and highly respected."

" His family consisted of James, now in the Bengal Government service; John who in the war served with the Canadians and fell in 1916; Robert, who holds an important engineering post in Porto (sic) Rico; Mrs. Mary PATERSON, Cullen Schoolhouse; Mrs. Elsie MCLEAN, Banchory; Nurse Madge BREBNER, matron of Coat's Nursing Home at Peesweep, Paisley; Miss Maud BREBNER, teacher at Bridge of Allan; and Mrs. Anne ANDERSON, East Fingask, Oldmeldrum."

"The funeral took place yesterday from East Fingask to Savoch Churchyard, Auchnagatt. There was a large attendance of mourners, the service at East Fingask being taken by the Rev. G. NESBITT, Oldmeldrum, and at Savoch Churchyard by the Rev. J. REID. Savoch U.F. Church."

Aberdeen Journal, Thursday, 06 AUG 1931

"Funeral of Mr. A.G. BREBNER -- Big Loss to Parish of Methlick -- Eighty Motor Cars in Procession."

"The funeral of Mr. Alexander George BREBNER of Balquindochy, Methlick, whose whole life was devoted to the interests of his native parish in many directions, took place yesterday from Balquindochy to Methlick Churchyard, and the obsequies were attended by the largest concourse of mourners that has ever been seen in that part of the county."

"The entire district was in mourning, and the gathering was an eloquent tribute to one who has left a fine memory of uprightness, public service, and fair dealing. His passing will be an irreparable loss to Methlick."

"Long procession. In the long procession -- there were about eighty motor cars -- were the Marquis of Aberdeen and Temair and the Earl of Haddo."

"Mr. BREBNER was a close friend of Lord and Lady Aberdeen, and was always their right hand man at all the Haddo House functions. Lady Aberdeen joined the cortege at the churchyard."

"The chief mourners and pall-bearers were:-- Mr. John GRANT, Auchenuive, Whiterashes (brother-in-law); Mr. Wm. GRANT, bank agent, Methlick, (brother-in-law); Mr. R.L. GRANT, Balquindochy (brother-in-law); Mr. John GRANT, C.A., London (nephew); the Marquis of Aberdeen and Temair, the Earl of Haddo; Fr. W.L. STEPHEH, Methlick; Mr. Leslie DURNNO, Uppermill."

"Impressive Service. -- An impressive service was conducted at Balquindochy House by the Rev. Wm. SUTHERLAND, South Church, Methlick, and the Rev. Wm. HAMILTON, North Church, the company of mourners including Mrs. BREBNER, the widow of the deceased; Mrs. M. ROGER, Aberdeen, and Miss ROGER; Mrs. GRANT, Bank House, Methlick; Mrs. GRANT, Auchenhuiwe, Whiterashes."

"At Methlick Churchyard the committal service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. SUTHERLAND, and the deceased was laid to rest in the family vault just under the shadow of the ivy-clad wall of the ancient church."

"In his prayer, the Ref. Mr. SUTHERLAND offered thanks for all that the late Mr. BREBNER was in that place, and they remembered with grateful hearts his sterling uprightness, the sacredness with which he held the bond of truth and honour, his high sense of duty, his abhorrence of all that savoured of sham and unreality."

"Thanks were also offered for his long, faithful and valued services to the community and the church which he dearly loved. They remembered his surpassing devotion to and love for his home, and they commended her who was mourning for the loss of her dear helpmate."

"The Company.-- (list of mourners not transcribed)"

"Floral Tributes.-- (list of flowers and donors not transcribed.)"

"Aberdeen Graduate."

"Mr. BREBNER was the largest tenant on the Haddo House estate, and took a foremost part in all the mansion-house celebrations. He was only twenty-three when he succeeded his father in farming."

"He was a graduate of Aberdeen University, and for the last forty years took an active part on all the public bodies, and in everything pertaining to the welfare of the parish. He was interested in education and the church, and was a trustee of the public hall, chairman of the Nursing Association, member of the District Committee, and of the Parish Council."

"He was also chairman of the Unionist Association, and an effective speaker. Mr. BREBNER was one of the straightest men, and did whatever he could and in every way for the good of Methlick."

Aberdeen Journal, Monday 27th November 1899:

"Aberdeen Nurse for the Front -- Among the nurses who have gone to South Africa with the hospital ship Princess of Wales is Nurse Brebner, who hails from Aberdeen, Nurse Alice Brebner is a sister of Mr. Alexander Brebner, farmer, Balquindochy, Methlick, is one of the nurses in Princess Christian's Institute at Windsor, and is a member of the Army Nursing Reserve, whose uniform is a grey gown, white folded cap, and a little red cape with the service badge. She had the honour on Wednesday to be presented with the other nurses to the Prince and Princess of Wales, when they visited the hospital ship. The ship is most luxuriantly fitted up, and each nurse has a private cabin, all the cushions of which have been made by Royal fingers. Nurse Brebner's many friends here will wish her God-speed in her noble work."

Rhineland Daily News, 10 January 1957

"Robert P. Brebner, Machinery Firm Founder, Dies"

"Robert P. Brebner, founder of Brebner Machinery Co. Inc., Green Bay and Marquette, Mich., died in a Green Bay hospital at 12:30 P.M. Wednesday after an extended illness. He was well known in northern Wisconsin."

"Born in Scotland Dec. 6, 1889 (sic), he came to this country in 1911 after a five-year apprenticeship as a stem engineer. He worked in Chicago as a hoisting engineer and then worked on farms while helping in the development of early farm tractors. Later he joined the Holt Manufacturing Co., of Peoria, Ill., a parent company of the present Caterpillar Tractor Co."

"In 1919 he went to Puerto Rico to assist an inventor in developing a new earth-tiller for use in sugar cane cultivation. In 1933 he returned to the United States to take over the Caterpillar dealership at Grand Rapids, Mich., and in 1934 he took over the northern Wisconsin territory and founded the Brebner Machinery Co."

"Surviving are his wife, Edith, and two sons, John P., now president of the company, and Robert B., vice-president and manager of the Michigan operation."

After cremation of the body, there will be a memorial service at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, in Union Congregational Church in Green Bay."

Aberdeen Journal, Monday 18 August 1913

"appointment for New Deer Farmer."

"Mr. James BREBNER, Hillhead, has been appointed to the post of salesman and Buchan representative to the old-established and popular firm of auctioneers, Messrs. A. MIDDLETON and Sons, Ltd., of the Belmont Auction Mart. This enterprising firm have just acquired the premises so long held by Mr. FINDLAY at Maud. Mr. BREBNER is specially qualified for his new duties by heredity and training. Although only 25 years of age, he has for several years had the management of a broad acreage and all kinds of livestock. He is a born auctioneer, and his gifts of originality and initiative have made him a great favourite in social circles in Buchan. As a judge of all classes of stock Mr. BREBNER has few equals. Indeed, when almost a boy he bought and sold extensively on his own account. Physically "Hilly" is an outstanding figure, as he is six feet four inches in height. A prominent member of the Scottish Horse, Sergeant BREBNER is known as a daring rider, and his many friends will wish him the best of success in his new sphere."
