"The Alleged Theft by a Jeweller"

"The case of George Brebner (31), working jeweller, Hutcheon Street, which was reported in our columns yesterday, came up for decision before Baillie Berry at Aberdeen Police Court to-day. It will be remembered that Brebner was accused of stealing a watch from George Munro, watchmaker, Gilcomston Steps, by asking it on approval and afterwards pawning it. Accused had maintained that he had bought the watch, not got it on approval, and intended to pay for it. Addressing accused to-day the Magistrate said he had some difficulty in deciding the case as there were two contradictory statements made by Munro and accused. The one stated that the watch was got on approval and the other that it was purchased. In the absence of any evidence corroborative of Munro's statement, the Baillie felt compelled to give accused the benefit of the doubt, and he would find the charge not proven. Brebner left the Court saying he would pay Munro for the watch "right enough."

I wonder if Baillie Berry was related to George's wife Mary Ann? At any rate, it doesn't appear that George learnt his lesson...

"Theft From a Union Street Jeweller"

"George Brebner was charged at a pleading diet of a Sheriff and Jury Court today -- before Sheriff Brown -- with having in March, from the shop 151 Union Street, occupied by William Miller, stolen a brooch, and on various occasions between 28th May and 4th July stolen a set of studs and sleeve links and four brooches. He pleaded guilty. Mr. J.T. Jeffery, solicitor, having made a statement on accused's behalf, Mr. Wilson mentioned that the value of the goods was £6. Accused had been about two years in the employment of Mr. Miller, who was removing at the time, and thus made the thefts the easier. The Sheriff remarked on the serious nature of the crime, which was aggravated by being committed on an employer. In respect that accused had not been previously convicted, the sentence would be restricted to forty days' imprisonment."

The Herald (New Orleans) August 24, 1922

"Mrs. Gertrude Brebner of Chicago, known as the little mother of the ex-service boys, recently sent out 2,500 letters to famous living Americans asking for recipes for their favorite dishes. President Harding sent his prescription for waffles, Thomas Edison for cold-slaw (sic), and William Jennings Bryan for fried onions. From the 350 recipes received Mrs. Brebner compiled a cook book, all profits of which will be donated to needy ex-service men."

Madison Wisconsin State Journal, 21 SEP 1947

"Princess Writes Her Kin".

"Baraboo -- Among those congratulating Princess Elizabeth of England on her recently announced engagement was Mrs. Gertrude Stafford Brebner, Baraboo, who in writing to the future heir to the British throne, wrote of a mutual relationship in line of descent."

"Mrs. Brebner has received in reply a letter from Balmoral Castle, written by Harbage Rymn, lady in waiting, in which she says, "I am desired by the Princess Elizabeth to thank you for your letter which her Royal Highness was most interested to read and also see your "coat of arms" which I am returning to you as I am sure you would like to have it back."

"History Hers"

"The coat of arms referred to has an interesting history. On Oct. 10, 1945, Mrs. Brebner was invited to be an honoured guest at the dedication of the Bourne house in Flushing Borough, New York City."

"The Bourne House was built in 1661 by Mrs. Brebner's lineal great-grandfather, John Bourne, and is still standing. It is known as the birthplace of religious freedom in America and was opened on July 14, 1947, as "America's National Shrine to Religious Freedom".

"John Bourne was the great-grandson of the Earl of Hereford and Essex. At the dedication of Bourne House, Mrs. Brebner was presented with the royal seal and coat of arms of the royal line and in which she found she has the same relationship to the royal family as the present Princess Elizabeth."

"Values Letter."

"Mrs. Brebner values highly the letter from the princess, bearing the royal seal, and on her letter head. The Baraboo woman has made a hobby of genealogy and has collected numerous records of her family history in her research work."

"She feels, however, that she is highly American since she is a Mayflower descendant and an American war mother, her son, Lieut. Col. Brebner, being in Japan."

Punch (Melbourne), 05 October 1916

"Mrs. Alex Stevan (sic) , of "Devon," Park-st, South Yarra, has received news that her nephew, Surgeon Arthur Brabner (sic), of the R.A.M.C., is on sick leave, and is recouping in Devonshire, England, accompanied by his wife (Alice Stevan); also that her nephew, Surgeon Wilberforce Arnold, has been invalided home from Malta, and is on home service at Tunbridge Wells, England. Another relative, Surgeon W. Stevan, is on active service at Salonika."

The Mercury Hobart, 05 August 1922

" The death has occurred, says a London cablegram of yesterday, of Mr. Arthur Brebner, M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P, who was formerly a lieutenant in the Royal Army Medical Corps. Deceased was the third son of the late Mr. James Brebner, manager of the Piccadilly (London) branch of the National Provincial Bank of England. He had travelled in China, Japan, the East Indies, and Australia, and in 1905 he married Alice Rose Ewing, eldest daughter of Dr. Alexander Steven, of St. Kilda, Melbourne. Articles from his pen have appeared in a number of Australian newspapers and periodicals, including the Melbourne "Argus" and "Age", and the Brisbane "Queenslander". Mr. Percy J. Brebner, deceased's eldest brother, who was also responsible for a great deal of literary work, died two days previously."

Arthur was an author in his own right, although his brother Percy was better known for his Edwardian novels. Arthur authored such works as "Patches and Pomander", "John Saint", and "Stories of the Temple Bar". His wife, Alice, had been trying to publish a posthumous work that she had completed, but had found little success in finding a publisher. Those endeavors had left her almost penniless.

He married Alice Rose Ewing Steven #5891, 3Q 1905 in Lewisham, ENG,<sup>224</sup> b. c 1876 in Australia?,<sup>225</sup> (daughter of Alexander Ewing Steven #17383 [Doctor/Physician] and (unidentified) #17384), d. 13 September 1929 in Paddington Station, London, ENG.<sup>226,9</sup>

"Woman Hanging in Waiting Room -- The woman who was found hanging in a waiting-room on No. 1 Platform of Paddington Station, London, has been identified as Mrs. Alice Rose BREBNER (50), Hare Court, Temple, London."

Western Daily Press, Tuesday 17th September 1929:

"OBSESSION-- Thought That Everyone Was Against Her."

"The story of a widow who was obsessed with the idea that everyone was against her was told yesterday at an inquest held at Paddington."

"The inquiry concerned Mrs. Alice Rose BREBNER (53), widow of the late Dr. Arthur BREBNER of London, who was found hanging in a room on the platform at Paddington Station last Saturday."

"Evidence was given by a brother-in-law, Maurice BREBNER of East Croydon, who said that Mrs. BREBNER had been deeply affected by the death of her husband in 1926."

"One day last week she called to see him and appeared very distressed. She was distressed with the idea that people had stolen her husband's papers which he had deposited at the bank. She seemed to think that everyone was against her. He knew that she was in receipt of a pension, her husband having served in the army during the war."

"Another brother-in-law, Leslie GOODING, said that after the death of her husband, he tried to get Mrs. BREBNER to go and live in Australia, but she refused to go, saying she preferred to live alone and remain in London."

"He said that Mrs. BREBNER had the idea that she ought to publish some of her husband's writings."

"The Coroner: Has she ever tried to get them published?-- Not that I know of."

"A verdict of "Suicide while of unsound mind" was returned."

Warrnambool Standard, 09 SEP 1916

"After having capably filled the position of organist at the local Baptist Church for the, Miss Nellie BREBNER has resigned owing to the her approaching marriage. In order to express their appreciation of her services, the members of the church tendered her a farewell social on Thursday evening, and the function was of a very pleasant character."

"During the evening Mr. Thomas BEATTIE, on behalf of the Deacons, voiced the regret they felt in losing Miss Brebner's services, and expressed their high appreciation of the faithful and efficient manner in which she had filled the position of organist for such a long period. Mr. A.M. BREBNER and Mr. S. DREWITT supported and endorsed Mr. BEATTIE's remarks, and the Rev. S. HARRISON, on behalf of the Church members, presented Miss BREBNER with a well-filled purse, at the same time adding his testimony to the efficient manner in which she had assisted in the musical portion of the services of the church."

"The presentation was suitably acknowledged, after which refreshments were partaken of, and the evening spent in a social way."

Aberdeen Journal, Tuesday 04 July 1933

"Millworker's Body Recovered.

"Victim of River Don Drowning Fatality.

"The body of the youth Alex. Bremner, 5 Mill Street, Gordon's Mills, Woodside, who was drowned while bathing in the River Don on Sunday, was recovered yesterday afternoon.

"In the vicinity of Devil's Rock, about a mile from the mouth of the Don, where the boy disappeared, the water is about thirty feet deep. All day members of the Aberdeen Police Force had carried out dragging operations, while the bereaved father, and other relatives of the boy, underwent the ordeal of watching.

"About 5.30 p.m. the police stopped for a short tea interval, but the dragging operations were continued by the lad's relatives, and it was by them that the body was recovered, about twenty yards south of the spot where he went down.

"The body was taken to the mortuary."

"Lawyer Struck Off Roll"

"The statutory committee of the incorporated Law Institute yesterday found that Alan Brebner Davidson, solicitor, had been guilty of grave professional misconduct in misappropriating £ 1,870/12/10 or trust money."

"Davidson, it was stated, had admitted the deficiency and had offered no explanation:

"The committee placed on record that the accountant reported that Davidson had given him every assistance to arrive at the amount of the deficiency."

"Davidson told the committee that he was trying to raise sufficient money to make good the deficiency."

Aberdeen Journal, Thursday 5th January 1950

"They Tried to Blackmail a Neighbour"

"A warning about the seriousness of trying to extort money by blackmail was given by Sheriff Laing in Aberdeen yesterday when three young men pleaded guilty to committing such an offence against a neighbour."

"If you had been older men I would have sent you to prison for a substantial period without the slightest hesitation" The Sheriff said.

"Your conduct, in a sense was more foolish than criminal."

"Eric Smith, unemployed, 9 Northfield Place, was fined £12; John Watt Mitchell Irvine, apprentice compositor, 8 Northfield Place, was fined £10; and George Brebner, laboratory assistant, 91 Whitehall Place, was placed on probation for twelve months and ordered to find £8 caution."

"The Indictment -- The indictment against the three accused stated that, while acting together in Northfield Place, or elsewhere in Aberdeen, they wrote and posted, or caused to be posted, a letter to a resident in Northfield Place. The terms of the letter were that:"

"Your unlawful dealings of the past few years would doubtless interest your employer, the police, and the Brotherhood of which you are an esteemed member."

"The consequences if such information is divulged are obvious, and would have a serious effect on your future."

"These facts, together with some conclusive evidence acquired, need not be disclosed if your co-operation is forthcoming."

"For the sum of £75 you may rest assured that this matter will be closed. At exactly 9 p.m. on Monday, December 19, you will place the money in a sealed envelope in the directory of the Albert Street telephone kiosk."
