Aberdeen Journal, Wednesday 30th September 1891

"FRASERBURGH -- ACCIDENTS -- Two serious mishaps occurred here on Monday.... David Brebner, a young journeyman painter, belonging to Aberdeen, at present in the employment of Mt. Stuart, Charlotte Street, had a very narrow escape of losing his life. He was engaged working on the roof of the Baptist Church, which building is being cleaned and renovated. While holding on by some wooden decorations in the roof the wood gave way and Brebner was precipitated to the floor, a distance of 35 feet. His fellow-workers made up their minds that their companion had been killed on the spot, but whether his fall had been in any way broken by the staging is not known, the fact remained that beyond being stunned and bruised, Brebner's injuries were confined to a broken wrist. He was quickly carried to his lodgings and attended by Dr. Trail, who put the broken limb in order."
