Aberdeen Journal, 11th June 1938

"Banff Business Man's Sudden Death"

"A well-known Banff business man, Mr. George Bremner, plumber, Carmelite Street, died suddenly yesterday afternoon.

"He was walking along Reid Street carrying a piece of piping when he was seen to collapse. On being carried into a nearby garage he was examined by a doctor who pronounced life to be extinct.

"Mr. Bremner, who was sixty-seven years of age, was a native of Turriff, his father being the late Mr. James Bremner, shoemaker.

"During the war he was a company quartermaster sergeant in the 6th Battn. The Gordon Highlanders."

"After serving his apprenticeship as a plumber with Mr. Charles Duthie, Turriff, Mr. Bremner went to America, but remained only a short time there. On returning to this country he was employed in his trade at Aberlour and Elgin, and later in Banff with Mr. J.H. Watson. Over thirty years ago he started business on his own account."
