

Generation One

1. Robert Bremner #7354, b. c 1777 in Banffshire?, SCT,¹ baptized 16 November 1846 in Basilique Notre Dame, Ottawa, ON, Canada,¹ d. 19 November 1846 in Ottawa, Upper Canada,² buried 20 November 1846 in Ottawa, Upper Canada.

Note that Robert was baptized into the Catholic Church in 1846 at age 69 in Bytown (Ottawa) at the Basilique Notre Dame. Unfortunately, the baptismal record does not list his parents' names. He died three days later. This would confirm that he immigrated to Canada with other family members.

The Notre Dame Cathedral Basilica was begun in 1841, on the site of the St. Jacques Church, a wooden building dating from 1832. It wasn't until 1858 that Notre Dame received its steeples. This is the oldest surviving church in Ottawa. The question of where Robert might be buried is difficult to answer. Notre Dame Cemetery did not open until 1872. Beechwood Cemetery in 1873. There were two cemeteries in use in Ottawa at that time. One was on the south side of Barrack Hill, where the Parliament precinct now stands. In 2013, bodies from that cemetery were uncovered during light rail transit construction on nearby Queen Street. It had been thought that all graves had been moved to either Beechwood or Notre Dame in the 1870's. The other cemetery was in Sandy Hill, and is now known as MacDonald Park. It was opened in 1845 and closed in 1872. Again, most of the burials were moved to Beechwood and Notre Dame.

That there is no record of Robert Bremner in the newer cemeteries is not surprising. After all, his family and descendants had lived in Bytown for a short time, and by the time that re-burial would have been required, that family had long since moved to Illinois. There are no Bremner burials in the Sandy Hill cemeteries, according to a 1911 transcription of stones. This may not be a complete record...

Inasmuch as John's wife is shown to have been born in Scotland... could she have been related to Robert's family?

"Chicago, May 15 -- Miss Jane Bremner, 19, daughter of James R. Bremner, millionaire biscuit manufacturer, has wired her father from Europe that she is returning home to enter a convent became known today."

"The girl it was said had expressed a desire to embrace religious life following her graduation from Rosemont college near Philadelphia. Her parents persuaded her to wait until she had seen something of the world. Accordingly, Mrs. Bremner took Jane and her four sisters to Europe last fall."

"Neither the gaieties of the old world nor the romantic mission of her sister Marion who is collecting her trousseau in the fashionable shops of London and Paris could cause Jane to forget her original intention."

According to the message to her father the girl has set her heart on joining the Sisters of the Holy Child Jesus at Sharon, Pa. The order has several schools including Rosemont college where Miss Bremner attended."

"Prospect Heights firefighters mourn loss of longtime trustee"

"By Larry Smith, Daily Herald Staff Writer"

"Members of the Prospect Heights Rural Fire Protection District are mourning the loss of one of its longest-serving members,"

"Robert J. Bremner, president of the district, died Wednesday at age 83 after spending 34 years with the district, first as a firefighter and then as a trustee."

"Fire officials said that Bremner provided never-ending motivation and dedication to the district."

"Saying he will be missed is an understatement, officials said."

"He was a great guy," said Fire Chief Donald R. Gould Jr. "It's a shame."

"Bremner first joined the fire district in 1962 after he was asked to join the force."

"He had on more than one occasion volunteered to help fight fires even before he officially joined the department."

"He spent 19 years as a volunteer firefighter before retiring in 1983."

"His work was so valued that the department retired his fire helmet and his shield number."

"Neither will be worn by a Prospect Heights firefighter again."

"Bremner's family requested private services and a memorial service is planned in the future, fire officials said."
