"RAILWAY ACCIDENT -- Lengthsman Killed. "

" A dreadful accident happened near Blythesdale this morning, when a lengthsman named Richard BREMNER was overtaken by the mail train and killed. BREMNER was riding a tricycle, and was patrolling the line, when the train caught him on a steep downgrade. The brakes were put on, but the rails were wet and slippery, and the train skidded on to BREMNER, hurling the trolley off the line on to BREMNER, and injuring him dreadfully. BREMNER was brought to Roma, and died on the platform. He had only been married twelve months."
