"Tobogganist Meets Death."

"George A. Brebner, one of the most popular employees of the General Electric company and a philanthropic worker in the First Presbyterian church, died at his home, in Schenectady, Thursday. Mr. Brebner's death resulted from an injury received Saturday afternoon. With a party of friends he went tobogganing in Bellevue. The toboggan was overturned accidentally, striking a small stump. It skidded along at a fast rate, hanging up against a fence. Mr. Brebner's injuries were not considered at all serious at first. He was 31 years old."
