The connection between the Liverpool and Mobile, Alabama BRABNER families is suggested by this union. I believe that Robert and at least two of his children, Samuel and Judith immigrated to Alabama.

Note that Judith's age varies from census to census: In 1860 she was shown as being 28, by 1870 she was only 30 and in 1880 she was a mere 33! At her death in 1911, her age was shown as 86.

Leeds Intelligencer, Saturday 4th February 1854

" Extraordinary Case of Horsewhipping."

" On Thursday week, at the Birkenhead Police-court, an extraordinary case of assault was heard before the magistrates. The plaintiff was Mr. D. McDonald, who lives near Claughton, and the defendants were Samuel Peeling Brabner, attorney, of North John-street, Liverpool, and of Southbank, Uxton, and his brother, Mr. Stephen Brabner, who lived at Claughton. Mr. McDonald and Mr. Samuel Brabner, some time ago, were on terms of friendship, and took a journey together into the Highlands of Scotland. Whilst in that country they became acquainted with a family called MacMillan, and, from some circumstances that then occurred, the friendship became interrupted: both separated, Mr. McDonald leaving for England, whilst Mr. Brabner remained in Scotland. Soon after, Miss Barbara MacMillan arrived in Liverpool from the north, and eventually became the guest of Mr. Samuel Brabner at Oxton, where the young lady appears to have been introduced to Mr. Stephen Brabner, who paid her some attention. Whilst residing at Oxton, Miss MacMillan received two anonymous communications, reflecting on the Brabner family, and as the complainant was suspected to be the writer, he was invited by the Brabners to their lodgings, where Mr. S.P. Brabner, seizing a riding whip, struck the complainant three blows with it over the shoulders. Mr. McDonald, having first rung the bell, in his defence, seized Mr. Samuel Brabner and threw him on a sofa, where some scuffling ensued, the younger defendant, it being stated, placing his hands upon the shoulders of the complainant for the purpose of pulling him off his brother, and the ladies pressing themselves against the door to prevent any ingress by the people of the house. Mr. Scott, the landlord, however, obtained admittance, and ordered the parties to quit the premises. The complainant denied being the writer of the letters, and the magistrates decided that the defendants should each be fined £2 and costs, and be bound over to keep the peace, themselves in £50 each, and two sureties in £25 each, and in default to suffer a month's imprisonment. It was then ordered that the complainant should be bound over to keep the peace to 12 months."
