1928: Informant at mother's death in Belhelvie.

Aberdeen Evening Express, 22 November 1918

"Drunken Soldiers -- Shocking Attack Heavily Punished."

At the Aberdeen Police Court to-day, before Baillie Sinclair, Arthur Bremner, discharged soldier, Whitecairns, Belhelvie, and James Bremner, soldier, Whitehall Place, Aberdeen, were charged with having yesterday, in houses in St. Andrew Street, willfully broken a panel of a door there and conducted themselves in a disorderly manner. Arthur Bremner was also charged with having brutally assaulted Elizabeth Gordon, wife of Alexander Gordon, private soldier, and Jessie Cowie, wife of Andrew Cowie, seaman."

"Both pleaded guilty, offering as an excuse at the time they were very much intoxicated."

"The Fiscal (Mr. Gavin Sinclair) remarked that this case belonged to a kind occurring but rarely in Aberdeen. Well on in the evening the two men had strayed into St. Andrew Street, and knocked at the door tenanted by Mrs. Gordon. The refusal to admit them had apparently aroused their drunken fury, and they promptly burst in the door. One of them knocked over Mrs. Gordon with a boot which he had taken off, from which it appeared he intended to make himself comfortable there for the night. The two intruders then roamed about the room, knocking over the mantelshelf and smashing several articles. After a time they went out across the landing to the house of Mrs. Cowie, who was lying ill in bed. Unfortunately she had left her door unlocked, and both men had walked in without giving any notice. Arthur Bremner then attempted to assault Mrs. Cowie, placing his hand over her mouth to prevent her cries being heard. The woman, however, succeeded in evading him, and running downstairs, informed a neighbour, who sent for the police. So great had been the shock that Mrs. Cowie fainted, and remained insensible for some time."

"Baillie Sinclair imposed a fine of 30s each, with the alternative of 15 days' imprisonment."
