"William Bremner Is Called Beyond"

"William Bremner, one of the foremost pioneers of Marshall county, passed away at 4:10 o'clock last evening at the home of his son-in-law, Hon. O.A. Byington, on the West Side."

"He is 81 years of age, and has spent about 60 years in Marshalltown, and the past year with his daughter here."

"He has been hopelessly ill for some time here, but displayed remarkable recuperative qualities and powers of endurance."

"The remains, following a private service at the Byington home, will be taken to Marshalltown for interment. Mr. Bremner, as indicated, was one of the best known men in that city. For a half century, he filled with ability the office of the county surveyor there, and was also city engineer."

"He was held in high esteem by the people of that community and his death will cause much sorrow among the friends of his young manhood and later years -- many of whom have known him more than half a century."

"Surviving, to mourn a good husband and father, are the widow, herself and invalid, and two sons and a daughter. The latter is Mrs. Byington, and the former are Attorney W.H. Bremner, Minneapolis; and G.H. Bremner of Chicago. W.H. Bremner is an alumnus of U.I.L.A. Class of 1891 and law 1895, and George H. Bremner a graduate of the college of Applied Science. "Death removed another of the West's old timers on Saturday morning when Janet Bremner, wife of George Bremner and sister of Mrs., Charles McKillop, pioneer residents of Lethbridge, passed away in Edmonton following a short illness.

"Born in White Lake, Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Bremner moved west in the early 90's, Mr. Bremner becoming identified with the McDonald dry goods store here as manager. Residing here for a comparatively short time, the family moved to Cranbrook and later went to Edmonton to reside.

"Deceased, who was 77 years of age, leaves to mourn besides her bereaved husband, two sons, John of Edmonton, and Charles of Montreal, who is in Edmonton at the present time. One brother and one sister survive, Mrs. Charles McKillop of Lethbridge, and Donald Fisher of White Lake, Ont.

"The remains are being brought to Lethbridge by Mr. Bremner and will arrive here on Tuesday afternoon at 1:10. The cortege will leave the C.P.R. depot and proceed directly to the cemetery where interment will take place in the family plot. Rev. J.M. Daily Sitka Sentinel. 21 JUL 1994

"Search Under Way Near Yakutat for Missing Man"

"By Shannon Hauglan, Sentinel Staff Writer"

"Coast Guard Air Station Sitka and Alaska State Troopers searched today for a Yakutat man missing since he tried to swim ashore from a skiff."

"About 25 search-and-rescue volunteers from Yakutat continued to cover the area in skiffs and on shore through today but by early this afternoon no trace was found of the missing man. Troy Bremner, 32."

"The search was concentrated 3/4 mile east from the mouth of the Situk and Ahrnklin rivers, about 10 miles south-east of Yakutat, where Bremner was last seen 11 p.m. Wednesday, said Peter Mylnarik, the Yakutat-based Alaska State Trooper."

"The trooper said the skiff was anchored about 120 feet offshore when Bremner tried to swim to the beach. Several witnesses told Yakutat police that Bremner, who did not have a flotation device, was not far from the skiff when he disappeared from view, said Mylnarik."

"Bremner's friends called the Yakutat police, who in turn notified the trooper. Mylnarik called the Coast Guard rescue coordination center in Juneau shortly after midnight to request help."

"Air Station Sitka launched a helicopter at 1:08 a.m. and it reached the area at 3:20 a.m., said Coast Guard spokesman Cory Cichoraki."

"After searching for an hour, the helicopter returned to Sitka, but search-and-rescue workers continued their efforts, said Mylnarik."

"We are still trying to determine what our next move will be," he said this afternoon, commenting that he was not certain of the likelihood of finding the body. "There are pretty strong currents through here."

"He said alcohol may have been involved, although troopers cannot be certain at this point. "We can't say anything conclusive," he said."
