Jean Parrott, age 92, passed away peacefully on September 12, 2012. She was born on March 9, 1920 in San Francisco, California, the youngest of 12 children. She was preceded in death by her former husband, John W. Parrott and is survived by her family, sons, Stephen, Edward, Mark and daughter, Marcia Parrott. She was mother-in-law to Patty Parrott and Denise Parrott, grandmother to Lisa Parrott Rossman (Cameron Rossman),

Jill Parrott Grochowski (Shelby Grochowski), Matthew Parrott, Becky Owens Higgs (Sean Higgs), and Eric Owens (Kim Owens). She was also great-grandmother to Taylor, Luke, and Max Rossman, Ginger and Jaime Grochowski, Kennedy, Riley, and Tanner Higgs, Sophie and Isabelle Owens. She will also be missed by many other relatives, neighbors who treated her like "family", the medical staff touched by her humor, and friends.

Jean graduated from Balboa High School, raised her four children, was active in community programs, such as district leadership role in the Girl Scouts, Golden Gate Neighborhood Association (Visitation Valley), Women in Community Service (WICS), and March of Dimes. She enrolled in college, graduating from San Francisco State College earning a degree in Social Work.

Jean was the Project Director of the Girls' Job Corps, then worked at the Family Service Agency as Program Manager of the Foster Grandparent and Senior Companion programs with wonderful professional staff and caring senior participants. She received many recognitions for 28 years of service from such dignitaries as Bill Clinton, Art Agnos, Milton Marks, Willie Brown, and Diane Feinstein. Nancy Reagan, a champion of the Foster Grandparent program, authored "To Love a Child" book about the lives of selected "foster grandparents" and included several of those on Jean's program. Jean escorted them to a recognition luncheon at the White House hosted by Nancy Reagan. Guest Frank Sinatra serenaded them with the Foster Grandparent theme song, "To Love a Child".

Jean was an active member of the First Unitarian Church in S.F for over 50 years, teaching church school and organizing large fund raisers and dinners.

Upon retiring at 76, Jean and her daughter traveled the world, including Europe, Russia, Australia, and Canada. Jean looked forward to visits from her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She enjoyed volunteering at the Doelger Senior Center. Jean studied the "art" of baking and continued to "tweak" her recipes. She loved to give away her delicious sweets to everyone. She also enjoyed reading, especially mysteries and the newspaper, watching the Charley Rose program, movies and plays, She joined the Senior Focus program at Mills-Peninsula and loved talking to the "men folk" about sports (Go Giants!) and "life".

She especially appreciated the staff at the Nobis Care Home for providing her with so much personal care, love, and laughter. Jean touched many people's hearts with her kindness, caring and "joy of life". We will all greatly miss her.

She married John W. Parrott #60825,³³ d. before 2012.³³
