Isabel:

No record of marriage in OPRI; I believe that William was an illegitimate child of David and Isabel MIDDLETON. This might explain why the MIDDLETON name is remembered in successive BREBNER family members in my own ancestry. Isabel is shown to have been from Scollycross, Strachan at the birth of son William. Age from 1861 census would make her 13 at marriage; probably born before 1813 !

Age at death shown to be 73...ie born 1807!

1871 census gives age as 70, ie born c 1801.

Both Jane and her husband seem to have been very vague about their ages given in the various census returns!

Gloucester Citizen, Tuesday 27 September 1887

"Breach of Promise By A Lady"

"An action has just been before the Perth Sheriff's court, at the instance of William Bremner, saddler, Cathcart, against Margaret Miller, daughter of James Miller, baker, Bunning, in which the plaintiff sued for £50, restricted to £12, as solatium and damages due to him by the defendant, in respect that "She, in or about the month of August, 1886, promised to marry the plaintiff, now refuses to fulfil the said promise, whereby the plaintiff has suffered in his feelings, and has sustained the loss claimed." Mr. R.. Mitchell, solicitor, Perth, who appeared for the defendant, said that this was an unusual action; that the plaintiff was usurping the prerogative of the fair sex; that the whole claim was denied; that, as the plaintiff knew well, the defendant would not marry except, like a dutiful child, with the consent of her parents, which was refused; and that no damage had been sustained. Mr. Thomas Chalmers, solicitor, who appeared for the plaintiff: Oh, yes, Mr. Mitchell: Specify your damages. (Laughter) Mr. T. Chalmers: Injury to feelings and loss or market. (Laughter.) The Sheriff: Oh, no; that applies to the other sex. Mr. Chalmers: Well, I am entitled to a day of proof. Mr. Mitchell: That is not much. (Laughter.) The Sheriff: The plaintiff can have that. (Laughter.) Tuesday, 25th October, was then fixed for the proof."

" Before Sheriff Dove Wilson"

"Ingenuous Youths. -- W. McWilliam (22) gardener, residing at Nellfield, and David Brebner, (23), gardener, residing at Airyhall, pleaded guilty to a charge of raising a disturbance at the house of an old man, at Mannofield, on the night of the 26th inst. Brebner, on being asked if he had anything to say said he thought it rather hard to be brought up upon such a charge, as there were others as bad as they were, but he said McWilliam happened to be seen. The Sheriff said the best way to avoid being seen in disturbance was not to be there. Brebner remarked that he had seen bigger disturbances many a time and nothing said about it. The Sheriff said it was perfectly possible there might have been more disturbances and nothing said about them, but that did not make it right for two young men to annoy an old man at any time, and particularly during the night time. McWilliam, who had been previously convicted of breach of the peace, was sentenced to pay a fine of 30s or suffer 15 days' imprisonment, and Brebner to pay a fine of 15s."

"Too much hospitality at a Glenkindie dispenish sale was stated to be the reason for the appearance in Aberdeen Sheriff Court of an elderly Alford man."

"William Brebner (65), auction mart canvasser, Glenmora Cottage, Alford, admitted driving a car on the Square, Rhynie, the previous evening while under the influence of drink to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control."

"A motorist, who had difficulty in passing accused's car approaching Rhynie and who noticed that he was zig-zagging, told the police. Brebner was stopped and a doctor certified him as to be "absolutely incapable of driving a car". -- He has held a licence for twenty-five years."

"Driver trapped hour and half smokes and chats."

"A B.R.S. driver was pinned by the legs in the cabin of his overturned lorry near Dundee on Saturday for an hour and a half. He smoked and chatted with his rescuers until extricated."

He is 43 year-old John Bremner, Bridgefoot, near Dundee. His 16-wheeled lorry and trailer, weighing about eight tons, toppled into a garden at a bend in Baldovan Road when the 13-ton load of twine shifted."

A mobile crane had to be called in to lever the lorry before rescuers could pull Bremner clear."

"While rescuers worked, Dr. Thomas Couston, registrar at Baldovan Institute, gave Bremner morphia."

"Mr. John Duncan Minto and his son Owen, whose allotment at East Pitempton overlooks Baldovan Road, were early on the scene with an axe and hacksaw."

"The main job was to get the engine off," said Mr. Minto, "as the whole thing was ready to burn."

"They severed the throttle pipe."

"Among others quickly on the scene were Bremner's brothers-in-law, Mr. William Taylor, Baldragon, and Mr. Walter Thomson, Bridgefoot Cottages."

"The lorry toppled into the garden of Mr. James Marshall, retired police sergeant. He and his wife ran out, and Mrs. Marshall supplied the needs of the rescue team."

"Bremner is in the infirmary with head lacerations and hand and knee bruises."
