"A Marvellous Escape"

"While some lads were hunting in the vicinity of Eagle Hawk Gully on Good Friday, one of them named Oscar Gregory, aged 15 years, lost his dog. As the animal did not return home he on Tuesday, in company with Alick Bremner, aged 11 years, proceeded to search for it, taking another dog with them. During the search the dog ran up a disused tunnel and began barking; the lads lit a torch of bark and started to explore the tunnel, Gregory in advance, when he suddenly disappeared down a winze over 40 ft. deep. He called to his mate that he had fallen down a shaft, and that the lost dog was also there, and alive. He told Bremner to hasten and tell someone to come to his assistance. Willing hands, notably William Simmons, W. Hutchins, J.T. Snoxall, with ropes, candles, etc. were soon on the spot; Simmons going below, where he found the lad with the dog in his arms and unhurt, with the exception of a few scratches -- a truly marvellous escape. considering the rough condition of the winze. Gregory wished the dog to be sent up first, but, needless to say, the lad was the first consideration. Both dog and lad are about, the former much worse for its adventure."

" Sudden Death. -- The police were advised yesterday of a painfully sudden death at 13 North-street. Mr. James Bremner, and elderly man, working at Knight's Foundry, complained of feeling unwell, and Mr. Knight advised him to go home. He had not long reached home when he collapsed. Dr. Irvine was sent for, but upon arrival Bremner's life was extinct. As deceased had not received any medical attention of late a certificate of death could not be given, and an inquest will be held at 13 North-street at 3 p.m. today."

"Maintenance Case.-- At the Police Court yesterday morning Ellen Bremner proceeded against her husband, Jas. Bremner, for having, on and since March 22, left her and her female child, aged none years, without means of support, and by his cruelty compelled her to leave her home. Mr. M.J. Clarke appeared for the defendant, to show cause. The complainant in the course of her evidence stated that she had been married 13 years. On the night of March 22 her husband came home the worse for drink. He went into his room and shut the door, and afterwards rushed out again. Becoming frightened, she left her home. In answer to Mr. Clarke, the complainant stated that she had only been struck once by her husband and that occurred about five months ago. She had always plenty of food, and seldom quarrelled. Her husband had not been speaking much to her lately which was the cruelty she complained about. The night she left her home she did not wait to see why her husband had rushed out of his room. All she wanted was peace and quietness. Mr. Clarke -- Was the drink your husband had some of your own brewing? Witness-- Yes; it was a composition of vinegar, water, tartaric acid and carbonate of soda. Mr. Clarke -- Then it's no wonder he saw stars at time, after drinking such a concoction. The Police Magistrate advised the complainant to go home, and not go meddling in police court cases unless she had something to go upon. The case was dismissed."
