Park Cities People, 19 JUN 1997

"Former Park Cities resident drowns in kayak accident"

"Dugal Bremner, 41, a 1973 graduate of Highland Park High School, died in a kayaking accident in California on June 3."

"Bremner, who made his home in Flagstaff, Ariz., was an avid outdoorsman and nationally know outdoor guide and photographer. He had been running rivers for more than 20 years and began pursuing photography about 10 years ago,"

"Bremner, who recently completed an assignment for National Geographic magazine, was ranked as a world-class kayaker. He died in his boat above a waterfall on the Silver Fork, a tributary of the south fork of the American River in Colorado."

"His photos will appear in the November issue of National Geographic."

"Born in Edinburgh, Scotland on Nov. 13, 1955, he attended Prescott College and graduated magna cum laude in 1976 with a bachelor of science degree in psychology/biology from Northern Arizona University."

"He was very, very funny," longtime friend Dave Edwards said. "He made us laugh at things in ourselves that we needed to laugh at. People said they'd take river trips with him and get off aching because he made them laugh so hard."

"Before becoming a professional photographer, Dugald led mountaineering and kayaking trips and worked as a Nordic ski instructor in the United States and France. For 20 years he guided river parties on the Colorado, towing dories and rafts."

"His photographic assignments took him around the world, from descending Siberian rivers to climbing peaks in Turkestan. He once found himself floating through a Central American insurgency while on assignment."

"Survivors include his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Normand Bremner of University Park."

"A memorial service was held in Flagstaff on June 14."
